TASKFORCE GUIDING PRINCIPLES
Consensus: Even though the decision may not be the first choice, everyone can live with and support the decision. Consensus does not	Inclusivity: Effective collaboration requires transparency and inclusiveness, equality among all participants, and active participation	Impact: Effective collaboration requires acknowledging capacity and scaling interventions to realistic goals.	Strategic Alignment: Effective collaboration requires all participants to disclose when our own interests are in conflict with those of the taskforce.	Respect: Effective collaboration requires mutual trust and respect for organizational boundaries, continuity in communication and interaction, and a

MEETING OBJECTIVES
Participants will develop consensus on as many recommendations as possible. For items without consensus, taskforce members will vote yes, no, or abstain.
Participants will refine the recommendations and identify entities that can serve as implementation champions and supporters for each recommendation.
Participants will identify four recommendations with the greatest anticipated impact to inform the development of the F4S Taskforce Partner Communication Toolkit.
The IMPH team will be equipped with the details they need to finalize the writing of the action plan.

[1] Consensus may be reached with the understanding that some taskforce members maintained an alternative perspective. These perspectives will be acknowledged, considered, documented, and respected as a central component of the deliberative process.
